MARCHING SONG

Words by
R. B. H. MACRORIE.

Music by DANIEL WEBSTER.

(Broad March Style) (M.M. ♩ : 120 to 132)
f
From field and town came the "New Ar - my," One mil - lion men left their fam - i - lies,
From hill and dale came the "New Ar - my," A mil - lion men with but one i - dea,
Their wo - men folks and their child - ren too, All gazed with pride as they marched from view,
To save the world and to cleanse the sod, And wrest the crown from a hea - then god, mp
And as they stood and gazed ten - der - ly, A might - y song swelled the ris - ing breeze.
They chant a loud as they march a long, A might - y chant of a bat - tle song.

CHORUS
We are the men of the "Great Ar - my!" Called to the flag by our own coun-try, We will ff fight with might The might of "De - moc - ra - cy" We know no fear of the en - e - my, We'll drive them back and win vic - to - ry, With steel, cold steel, The steel of the "New Ar - my."

fa-ther's died, Land of the pil-grim's pride, rocks and rills, Thy woods and tem-pled hills,
tongues a-wake, Let all that breathe par-take,
land be bright, With free-doms ho-ly light,
From ev'-ry moun-tain side, Let freedom ring.
My heart with rapture thrills, Like that a-bove.
Let rocks their si-lence break, The sound prolong.
Pro-tect us by Thy might, Great God our King.

When used by male voices, transpose to the key of B♭ below and sing as written.
